See Tahoe's unmatched beauty,
 while breathing it's pine-scented air.
 Ride through the forest on a 10 mile long, black topped trail, completely separate from the highway.

With 2 beautiful Tahoe beaches,
 the restored Baldwin Estate, the Forest Service Visitor Center, and cross a sparkling mountain stream on a bicycle bridge.

YOU'LL FEEL GREAT!

TALLAC REMEMBRANCE HILL HISTORY

Historical marker text (partially legible):
TALLAC REMEMBRANCE HILL HISTORY
This hill was the site of the Tallac Hotel, built in 1891 by the Baldwin family. The hotel was a popular resort for the wealthy and the famous. It was destroyed by fire in 1906. The hill is now a state park and is a popular destination for hikers and nature lovers.
